(Fathers, There was a typo in the signs that were sent last week for parishes to use. An updated version is attached. Sorry for the confusion. Below is Bishop Brennan's message for today. -Julie)

Brothers,

I continue to hear good feedback regarding weekday Masses this week. I hope it goes well for you and certainly hope that it goes well as the weekend approaches. You have been working hard with your parish teams to prepare your churches to be welcoming and to provide an environment is as safe and healthy as is reasonably possible.

It seems to me that it might be good to gather in prayer as we head into the weekend. To that end I invite you to join me in prayer on Friday afternoon at 2:00 PM for a Zoom Call. We could pray Mid-afternoon Prayer together and I will offer a few thoughts. I don't plan on any real business but if you have any questions you may send them to return@columbuscatholic.org and I can either address them directly or if it seems appropriate for all when we meet. You will receive the Zoom invitation in the next day or so.

Next week, I suspect we will probably continue to need some amount of written updates, but as we move forward we may find that there will not be a need for a daily update. We will try to keep to the habit of combining our communications when possible and sending everything together at the end of the day.

Fraternally
Bishop Brennan
